Tobacco Men in Conference

The tobacco interests of Appomattox will be ably represented at South Boston to-day, where the question of marketing facilities at Appomattox will be considered. Appomattox is to make every provision for the proper handling of all grades of tobacco, which will be a great convenience to the members of Co-operative marketing in this section of Virginia.

Among those attending from this county we note—W. O Moss, R. L. Burke, H C. Babcock, A. R. Harwood, J. E. Sears, W. H. Byrne, Jno. C. Moore, Jr., and M. C. Smith. Mr. S. V. Panlett, of Pamplin, was in town yesterday and said that Pamplin would be represented at the meeting.

Our director, W. C. Wingfield, is scheduled to be here before a meeting on the 15th instant to enlighten the members of the association.

Beginning the conference with the warehousemen of four states at South Boston, Va , on Wednesday, April 5th, continuing conferences at Greensboro and Raleigh, N. C , on April 6th and 7th, and ending the meetings at Florence, S. C., on Saturday, April 8th, Warehouse Manager T. C. Watkins and the committee on warehouses will report to a full meeting of the directors of the association in Raleigh on Tuesday, April 11th.

The recent selection of Oliver J. Sands, of Richmond, president of the American National Bank of that city, as manager of the Marketing Association, and the choice of Frank D. Williams, the skillful leader of the sun cured pool of Virginia, and well-known leaf dealer, as manager of the Dark Leaf Department will further insure the success of the association in three states.

Growers in both the Carolinas and Virginia are urged to support the many meetings being held this week and to win new signers to the contract.

Tobacco Growers Meeting

Signers of the Tobacco Growers Marketing contract in this county will hold a mass meeting at Appomattox on Saturday, April 15th, at 1:30 p. m.

Mr. C. W. Wingfield, director from this district, will be present to explain what has been accomplished by the Board of Directors of the Association to discuss future plans and to meet the growers of this county.

This will be the most important meeting of the signers here this year, and every member of the Association is urged to attend and meet his director Other speakers will be on hand to discuss topics of vital importance so don't forget the date.

J. T. Cole, President.

Buckingham

There was a marriage, a birth and a death within a radius of a few miles last week. A webits of a baby boy at the home of Mr and Mrs. Lightfoot Ragland. Mrs. Bessie Wooten an widow was united in marriage with Mr. Rolfe Gregory. The ceremony took place at the Methodist parsonage at Maysville, Rev Mr. Stimpson officiating. The same day the death of Mrs John Miller took place at her home near Manteo. Mrs. Miller was quite young she was a Miss Golliday before her marriage. She left a little baby boy not more than a day old and one attractive little girl.

Mr. W Lee Patteson was quite sick last Friday and Saturday and he sent for Mrs. Patteson, she had been staying with her daughter, Mrs. R. B. Hudgins near New Canton.

On last Sunday a Sunday School was organized at St. Andrews' church with Mr. George Mixey as superintendent and Mrs. Mixey as Treasurer there are a promising lot of pupils there and these people should have preaching at this nice little church every Sunday instead of having it on Sunday in the month.

Mr. Harris Hart kindly sent me a copy of the new school law which provides that in each school diserict of the county there shall be one trustee, selected in the manner provided by law. The school trustees selected in each county as provided in Sec. 1 shall constitute the county school board. The county school board as above constituted is hereby vested with all the powers and charged with all the duties hitherto vested in the several district school boards. This of course is given in abridged form, but gives the changes that are made "The manner provided by law" means that the trustees to serve each school dietrict are to be chosen by the Trustee Electoral Board and are not to be elected by the people as was stated in one. The terms of all trustees now in office, will expire on September 1st, 1922, and the new county school board will hold its first meeting not later than the 10th of September. This county board shall organize by electing one of its members as chairman and shall appoint some competent person as clerk, and fix his compensation. The members of each county school board may receive $5 a day for their services each day they are in attendance upon the meetings of the board not to exceed twenty days in any one year.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Spencer entertained a number of their friends at tea on Saturday.

Misses Haskins and Baird will close St. Andrews school on next Friday.

Mr. Hyram Buckner will also close his school on the same day and he contemplates being in Washington with his brother the coming summer.

Mr. Henry C. Groseclose contemplates attending V. P. I. the coming session.

Mrs. D. N. Davidson and Miss Mabel Groseclose of the High school faculty were both victims of influenza the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Perkins Ellis contemplate spending some time at their summer home near Mt. Vinco.

Mr. Willie Green has begun painting his new Bungalo.

Mr. John Eldridge was traveling in James River district last week warning people against letting fires get out.

Mrs. H. C. Glover has been at the home of her sister, Mrs. Russell Moon to be with her niece who has been very ill.

The little sufferer was attended by Dr. Watts and we hope is better.

Rev. C. M Barrell was one of the miniscers who took part in the installation services when Rev. Plummer Jones was installed as pastor of the Presbyterian church at Arvonia

Statutes of Descent for State Changed

Governor Trinkle has signed three important bills relating to property rights. These are house bills 73, 74 and 75, dealing with dower, curtesy and the course of descents, respectively. The general object of each of the bills is to put women on the same footing with men insofar as her rights relate to property.

Dower and cortesy effect married persons only; descents effect all persons, whether married or not. Dower referes to a widow's rights in her deceased husband's real estate, while coruesy refers to a widower's rights in his deceased wife's real estate. Both are simply life estates.

Under the law now in force, a widow is endowed of one-third of all the real estate whereof her husband, or any other to his use, was at any time during the marriage seized of an estate of inheritance, unless her right to such dower shall have been lawfully barred or relinquished. (Code sec. 5117). House bill 73 amends the section of the code just referred to so as to provide that if the husband die testate (that is leaving a will), his widow shall be endowed of one-third, and if he die intestate (that is without leaving a will), and without issue of that or of a former marriage, the widow shall be endowed of all such real estate of her husband Under this amendment if the husband leaves no will or issue, the widow will be entitled to a life estate in all her deceased husband's real estate, provided she other requisites for dower exists; if he leaves a will or issue the widow will be entitled to one third for life, as at present and the widow cannot be deprived of this third without her consent.

PROVISION AS TO CURTESY

House bill 74 relates to curtesy. Without attempting to state all of the common law requires for curtesy, it may be said that, unlike dower, one of such requisites for curtesy is that there must have been issue born alive of the marriage, otherwise the husband has no right in his wife's real estate after her death, unless of course he derives right through the wife's will

But in order to equalize things, curtesy being contingent upon the birth of issue, and dower not, curtesy, under law now in force, is a life estate in the whole of the wife's realty as she, under house bill 73, has in his, and under the same corresponding conditions, and expresly provides that it shall not be a requisite to curtesy "that the wife shall have had a child born alive during coverture."

Section 5264 of the Code is Virginia's statute of descents. It was the work of Thomas Jefferson and was originally enacted in 1785. Since that time it has been modified in only a few respects. House bill 75 amends section 5264 materially. Under the section now in force, if the decendent leaves no children, nor the decendants of any, his real estate of inheritance as to which he dies intestate, decends to his father, and if there be no father, then it decends in equal parts to his mother, brothers and sisters. The residue of the section carries out the same idea of giving preference to the ascending mail line.

House bill 75 seeks to remove throughout this preference Hence, if the decendent leaves no child, nor the decendent of any child, his real estate will go, not to his father alone, but to his father and mother equally, if both are living, or to the survivor, if one be dead

RAISES SPOUSE'S STANDING

But in addition to the elimination of this preference, the bill raises the standing of a surviving husband or wife as heir of the other. Under existing law, neither is the heir of the other unless no other heir in the world exists, but under the new bill, if there be no children, no father or mother, no brother or sister, nor no decendant of any such, then the whole of the estate goes to the surviving husband or wife.

With some exceptions personal estate is distributed in the same way as real estate. (Code sec 5273) The bills today signed by the Governor will not become effective until ninety days after March 20th, the date of the final adjournment of the general assembly.

Magnetizing Steel.

Magnetism is put into steel or iron by induction from some other magnet or by electric action. If a piece of steel is brought into the field of a magnet it becomes magnetized, and if it is touched or stroked with one end of the magnet it retains this magnetism. Another method of magnetizing is to wrap the steel in a coil of wire, through which is passed an electric current. The steel gradually and slowly loses its magnetism, particularly if it is heated to a high temperature or is subjected to mechanical treatment such as hammering, twisting, etc.

Jackson's "Kitchen Cabinet."

"The kitchen cabinet" was a name given to a group of political advisers of President Jackson. They occupied no official positions, but were consulted by the President as private citizens. The principal members of this "cabinet" were Amos Kendall, William B. Lewis, Isaac Hill, Duff Green and Francis P. Blair. It was the custom of these unofficial advisers, whenever they called upon the President, to go in by the back door to avoid observation—hence the sobriquet of "kitchen cabinet," which is said to have originated among the Whigs.

Pity the Poor Auto.

Jay Jasper bought a runabout, resplendent, fresh and new; went in the hole five hundred plunks—so has to fret and stew. Not having wherewithal to build a cover for his car, it's standing out in rain and snow and wheezing with catarrh. Yet Jay, he loves his gas machine, and boasts of it with joy; he'd no more think of selling it than parting with his boy. His mower, which he's had four years, is sheltered with a shed, while auto stands in all outdoors, with naught about its head.—Exchange.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative power of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Our Merchants!

The growth and development of any community depend to a large extent upon the character and progressiveness of its merchants.

A city chooses its merchants, for only those whom the people patronize can afford to remain in business. The man who does not "play fair" will, sooner or later, be found out and forced to quit. The honest merchant who knows his business and sticks to it is bound to succeed.

This community is fortunate in having its mercantile business in the hands of high class men. No finer body of business men can be found anywhere in the world than those with whom our people have the privilege of dealing daily.

Little Marcia's baby dress though made of the finest linen was ultimately worn threadbare. One day it landed in the rag bag and was sold to the junk dealer. When the rag sorter touched the discarded garment he detected in a flash the fine quality of the flax and set it aside for a journey to the Bureau of Engraving and Printing at Washington. Eventually it became legal tender—a bank-note. Just how is told in one of the beautiful booklets about Our Government which we are sending each month to those interested.
